

1

2

3

4

5

6

7

An NFL cheerleader reunion

The first National Football Cheerleaders Alumni Reunion Dinner was hosted July 28 by the Washington Redskins Cheerleaders Alumni Association at National Harbor's Gaylord National hotel.

1. Virginia Gov. Robert F. McDonnell, whose wife, Maureen, was a Redskins cheerleader, chats with former squad member Sharon Ellis. 2. Current cheerleaders Laura K. and Charo at the calendar-signing table. 3. Former assistant Redskins coach Jim Speros, ex-punter Mike Bragg and ex-defensive back Darryl Pounds. 4. Kiersten Allen, left, wife of Redskins general manager Bruce Allen, and former cheerleader Terri Lamb, the Washington Redskins Cheerleaders Alumni Association president. 5. Ex-Redskins running back Buddy Hardeman. 6. From left, former Buffalo Bills cheerleaders Rita Valutis, Susan Makai, Patricia Murray, Kathy Benzinger and Selina Boswell. 7. From left, ex-Redskins cheerleaders Dreana Ashton, Diane Yslas Brown and Diana Ackermann. 8. First lady of Virginia Maureen McDonnell. 9. Former Redskins cheerleaders Dawn Laughlin, left, and Jenny Tesh. 10. Legendary Redskins placekicker Mark Moseley, who won 1982's Most Valuable Player award, signs a calendar for Diana Rucci, a branch manager for Wells Fargo bank.

8

9

10